Aashka Shah
Counsel
aashka.shah@juriscorp.in

Practice Groups
- Financial Services
- Regulatory

Aashka is a Counsel and part of the Financial Services and Regulatory practice groups. She specialises in derivatives for a diverse clientele including foreign and Indian banks, insurance companies, mutual funds, and corporations. Her extensive knowledge spans Indian and foreign regulations governing OTC derivatives, providing invaluable guidance on compliance and documentation within India.

She meticulously reviews primary due diligence by banks before derivative transactions, crafting essential documentation for their role as market makers. Aashka advises institutional and foreign investors on Indian market investments and aids in dispute resolution arising from derivative dealings.

The Firm's focus on market development and capacity building is ably supported by Aashka through her grooming of newcomers at the Firm and market wide presentations on regulatory changes in the Indian derivatives market.

Aashka's journey with Juris Corp is a testament of Juris Corp's equal opportunity commitment. Aashka has been working from home before WFH became a moniker and entered the social lexicon.

Aashka is highly appreciated by her clients for her clarity of thought in the OTC derivatives space.

In addition to Law, Aashka loves to dabble in art and design.

Awards and Recognitions:

- Ranked as a Recommended Lawyer for 'Fintech' and 'Financial Services Regulatory' in the Legal 500 Asia-Pacific 2023 Edition.