- Regulatory

Saurabh is a Partner and part of the Dispute Resolution & Insolvency, Financial Services, and Regulatory practice groups. He provides decisive support to banks, non-banking financial companies, housing finance companies, stressed asset funds and asset reconstruction companies, other financial intermediaries, and corporates across a wide spectrum of financing transactions. His expertise spans across acquisition finance, distressed merger & acquisition, structured finance, resource raising, bonds and notes issuances, and restructuring: for both domestic and international clients.

Additionally, Saurabh excels in precious metals-related documentation, regulatory intricacies, and strategising financial disputes. He has expertise across sectors like power, renewable energy, transportation, oil and gas, steel, real estate, manufacturing, and mining.

As a trusted advisor in regulatory affairs, particularly in foreign exchange regulations, securitisation, and stamp duty, he has played a pivotal role in ensuring closure of complex transactions for businesses.

Saurabh's growth in Juris Corp well reflects the Firm's commitment to Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) even before this became a norm or was demanded by clients. Juris Corp believes in providing a level playing ground to each of their talent and has ensured that Saurabh's best version to be out there by leveraging on his capabilities without waiting for alignment of the environment.

Renowned for his expertise in closing deals and astute negotiation skills, he is the go-to individual for navigating complex transactions, thanks to his profound knowledge and persuasive abilities.

Saurabh is a Shayar who will not shy away from engaging with you through his shayari. He is also our in-house Milkha Singh and is so committed to running that he often takes a break during office hours to complete his daily run.
